Wednesday, May 31 1704

From the Rotterdam Gazette, dated June 2.

Lintz, May 14.

WE have Advice, that the Elector of Bavaria has caus'd a Garrison of his Troops to be put into the Castle of Passau, and the Burghers of that Town to be disarm'd: He has likewise caus'd all the heavy Artillery that was in the Place to be transported to Munich, and has threaten'd to lay a Poll-Tax upon all the Inhabitants: Who complaining that such Proceedings were a Violation of the Articles of Capitulation upon which the Town was surrendered, were answer'd by the Governur, that he knew nothing of those Articles, and that he would have no regard to any thing but his Electoral Highness's Orders. Monsieur de Monasterole, Brother of the Bavarian General, having been here 3 Weeks under a feign'd Name, went from hence yother day to get to the Elector's Army, but was discover'd as he pass'd through General Thierheim's Camp, and being apprehended is sent hither a Prisoner by that General. They write from Tyrol, that 8000 Men are drawing together in that Country, in order to make an Irruption into Bavaria.

From the Amsterdam Courant, dated May 29.

Vienna, May 14. The following Memorial was deliver'd to her Britannick Majesty by Count Wratislaw, before he left England.

Madam,

THE underwritten Envoy extraordinary of his Imperial Majesty, has taken several occasions to represent by Word of Mouth to your Majesty's Ministers the heavy Calamity and imminent Danger the Empire lies under, since the Elector of Bavaria receiv'd a numerous Army of French into his Country, which together with the Insurrection in Hungary has occasion'd incredible Terrour and Disorder in the Imperial Hereditary Countries, so that there is cause to fear a general Revolution and a Devastation of Germany, unless a Supply of Succours, proportion'd to the greatness of the impending Danger, be speedily furnish'd.

True it is, that the underwritten Envoy extraordinary is thoroughly satisfied with the Zeal which your Majesty's Ministers have express'd for the common Cause, and with the regard they have had to the Representations he has made to them; but seeing no Resolution is yet taken thereupon, notwithstanding the Season for Action is already pretty far advanc'd, and that several Schemes that have been propos'd lye till the Duke of Marlborough gets to the Hague before any of them can be finally agreed on, the underwritten Minister finds himself oblig'd before his Departure to press this Matter once more, and to represent the Danger the Emperor and Empire are in, by Writing, as he has before by Word of Mouth, to induce your Majesty out of your Zeal for maintaining the Liberty of Europe, that Zeal which renders you so Illustrious among the Potentates your Allies, to give order to the Duke of Marlborough your Captain General to consult effectually with the States-General, and conclude upon the speediest Means of succouring the Empire, at least to lead the Troops your Majesty has in the Netherlands up into Germany to defend the Empire from utter Ruin, it not being reasonable in it self, nor advantageous to the Common Cause, that your Majesty's Arms should be confin'd to the Frontiers of Holland, which are not threaten'd by the Enemy, and which are cover'd by large Rivers and Places strongly Fortified, while the Empire is over-run by the French and laid waste with Fire and Sword. This earnest Request, which the underwritten Minister most humbly makes, is grounded on the Alliance between the Emperor, England, and Holland, on the 4th, 7th, and particularly on the 11th Article of the same: And he makes sure account, that your Majesty, in pursuance of the Tenour of that Alliance, will give necessary Orders for succouring the Empire effectually; if requisite Succours be withheld the said Envoy foresees the Danger that must ensue; especially if the States-General persist in their Resolution to recall their Troops out of Germany, at the very time when France is about to send a Reinforcement to their Army in Bavaria; and he will at least have this Melancholy Consolation, that he is not answerable for such ill Consequences; and that they cannot be charg'd upon his Negligence seeing he has not been wanting to make pressing Instances on this Subject in due Time and Place, being oblig'd so to do by his Duty, the Orders sent him by his Master, and the apparent dangerous State of the Affair in Question.

London,

J. Wenceslaw, Count Wratislaw.

April 2. 1704.

From the Leiden Gazette, dated May 20.

Paris, May 12. The King has caus'd the following Declaration to be made publick.

LOuis, by the Grace of God King of France and Navarre, Count of Provence, Forcalquier, &c. To all who shall see these present Letters, Greeting. By our Declaration of the 23d of November 1697, We forbid all our Subjects of what Condition soever, to settle in the Principality of Orange, or to exercise the pretended reform'd Religion there; at the same time we permitted them to go and sojourn there as long as their Traffick and Business might require. By another Declaration of the 13th of January 1698, we gave leave to all our Subjects that are ancient Catholics, freely to undertake and carry on all manner of Traffick in the said Principality, as they used to do before the last War, without any Hindrance: And as for our Subjects that are New Converts, we consented that they should trade likewise in the Principality of Orange, on Condition nevertheless, that before they set out for the said Principality, they should ask a Licence of the Governours, or Intendants of our Provinces, in which they dwell, and should declare to them what it was they traded in; which done, a Licence should be granted them without delay: and that upon their arrival in the Province lying nearest to the said Principality, they should shew the said Licence to the Governour or Intendant of that Province, in order to obtain such another Licence from him; on the Penalty that those who should endeavour to pass into the said Principality without such Licences, should be condemn'd, the Men to the Gallies for Life, the Women to 5 Years Imprisonment and a Fine of 3000 Livres. But we having suppress'd all Exercise of the said pretended reform'd Religion in the said Principality, since it was in the Possession of our dear and most intirely beloved Cousin the Prince of Conti, and since the Sovereignty of the said Principality was reunited to our County of Provence, We have judg'd, that it would be useless for the future to cause the Rules prescrib'd by our said Declarations of the 23d of Nov. 1697, and the 13th of January 1698 to be observ'd. For these Causes and others Us thereunto moving, We have declar'd and commanded, and declare and command, and our Will and Pleasure is, that for the future it shall be free for all sorts of Persons, of what Quality and Condition soever, whether Ancient or New Catholicks, to go, come, sojourn, settle, and trade in the City and Principality of Orange, in the same manner as they are allow'd to do in all other Cities and Places of our Kingdom, Countries, Territories and Lordships; and that our said Declarations of the 23d of November 1697, and the 13th of January 1698, shall be no Bar to our Subjects that are New Converts, we having revok'd, and by these presents do revoke the same. Accordingly we charge our beloved and trusty Councillors of our Court of Parliament at Aix, to cause these Presents to be register'd, and the Tenour of them to be fully and quietly put in Execution, without any Trouble or Hindrance; any thing to the contrary notwithstanding. For such is our Pleasure, in witness whereof we have caus'd the said Presents to be seal'd.

less

Given at Versailles, March 1. 1704.

Sign'd Louis, and underneath C. Colbert.

Register'd in the Parliament of Aix, April 8. 1704.

Sign'd Silve.

These are to certify whom it may concern, That I John Major Master of the William and Mary Pink, a Trader between Newcastle and London, having for several Years been very much afflicted with the Gravel in the Kidneys and stoppage of Urine, did about a Month since take a Powder sold by Mr. Rogers at the Sun against St. Dunstan's Church in Fleet-street for curing the Gravel, which had so good an Effect upon me, that tho' when I took it I had a great stoppage of Urine, it immediately caus'd me to make Water plentifully, and having a great Pain in my Back the next day, I took it a second time, and it not only gave me ease presently, but caus'd me to void a great quantity of Gravel, so that I look upon it to be the best Remedy in the World for that Distemper, and this Certificate I do (in Justice to the Author of so excellent a Medicine, as well as for the Benefit of the Publick) give under my Hand the 28th of April 1704. John Major.

This Person is to be heard of at Mr. Tennants a Distiller at King Edward's Stairs at Wapping.
